

Neighbourhood House Week

Art and Storytelling Competition

This year for Neighbourhood House Week, PPCG and ARCH want to hear about what is bringing people together and building resilience in the Port Phillip community.

It's been a tough two years for many of us, and we want to celebrate the strength, generosity and resilience of our communities by inviting people to photograph, paint, draw, or tell a story about something special in your community.

You can use these key statements to help you with the theme of your artwork or storytelling:

What I love about my community is...

What brings people together in my community is...

What builds resilience in my community is...

Complete the submission form below and send it in along with your artwork or story for your chance to win $100 worth of prizes from local businesses in our community! Submissions close on 13th June, 2022 and the winner will be announced later that month. Anyone living or sleeping rough in the City of Port Phillip is welcome to submit, and all entries will be exhibited at Alma Road Community House from July 2022 for the community to enjoy.

Submission Form

First name: _____ Suburb: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Please note that all submissions will be exhibited, along with the suburb of the artist, at Alma Road Community House and may be used in other PPCG and ARCH publications such as our annual report, website and social media. We will not advertise the first name of the artist without written consent.*

- I consent to my first name being shown along with my suburb at the ARCH exhibition.
- I consent to my first name being shown along with my suburb on ARCH and PPCG website, social media and other publications.

Signed: _____ Date: ____/____/____

Post your submission to:

Port Phillip Community Group - NHW Competition
161 Chapel St, St Kilda
VIC 3182

Or, email your submission to:

info-support@ppcg.org.au

Got a question?

P: 8598 6600